

Driver How-To: Trouble Logging In?

If you have an existing account in DQM Connect but forget the login info you created, you may log in using your DL# and last four of SSN.

If you are unsure if you have an active account, check with your employer.

Receiving an error notice?

1. Double-check that your DL has no dashes or spaces included
2. Use the eye icon to double-check that you've entered the last four of your SSN correctly.
